Ann Howard Jones is newly appointed Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at Boston University, where she conducts the Symphonic Chorus and Chamber Chorus, teaches advanced choral conducting, and administers the MM program.

Dr. Jones continues as Assistant Conductor for Choruses with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, where she is closely associated with Yoel Levi, Music Director, and Robert Shaw, Music Director Emeritus and Conductor Laureate. She is also Conductor of the Atlanta Symphony Youth Chorus. She serves as Musical Assistant with the Robert Shaw Chamber Singers and Festival Singers, whose recent performances led to recording of Poulenc, Dachmaninoff, Brahms, and Schubert choral music on TELARC and critical acclaim at Carnegie Hall. She assists Mr. Shaw in the musical preparations for the Robert Shaw Institute which has rehearsed, performed and recorded in southern France since 1988.

Dr. Jones has bachelor's and master's degrees in Voice and a Doctorate in Choral Conducting from the University of Iowa. She has taught at the universities of Iowa, Georgia and Illinois, and at Wittenberg and Emory Universities. While a Fulbright Senior Lecturer in Brazil, she consulted in the development of a university choral program and taught choral and vocal pedagogy. She is in constant demand a adjudicator, clinician, and lecturer at workshops and seminars, and often serves as guest conductor for festival, All-State, and honor choruses.

Dr. Jones is a life member of ACDA and has held various elected offices in the organization and her groups have been invited to appear at MENC, ACDA, and AGO convention programs.
